COMMISSIONER FLYNN APPOINTED TO LARGE URBAN COUNTY CAUCUS STEERING COMMITTEE

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County Commissioner Joan Flynn was appointed to the 2005-2006 Steering Committee of the Large Urban County Caucus (LUCC) by National Association of Counties (NACo) President Bill Hansell.

The LUCC is a bipartisan coalition of elected county officials from the 100 largest urban counties in the nation. The group lobbies for the needs and concerns of those 100 communities.

As a member of the Steering Committee, Flynn will be an integral part of the decision-making process of the LUCC, which represents more than 130 million people nationwide. She will serve a three-year term on the committee.

The Caucus is a bipartisan coalition of elected county officials from the 100 largest urban counties in the nation. The group lobbies for the needs and concerns of those communities.
